

Name: _____

Date: _____

FOOD AND NUTRITION

Solve the following problems. Write your answer on the line.

Score: _____ / 20

Grade 3 | EVS | Sheet 1

|                                                        |                                                    |                                                        |                                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 1) Foods that give us energy are called ____.          | 2) Foods that help build our body are called ____. | 3) Foods that protect us from disease are called ____. | 4) Milk, eggs, fish are rich in ____.        |
| _____                                                  | _____                                              | _____                                                  | _____                                        |
| 5) Rice and bread are rich in ____.                    | 6) Fruits and vegetables are rich in ____.         | 7) Ghee and oil are rich in ____.                      | 8) Vitamin C is found in ____.               |
| _____                                                  | _____                                              | _____                                                  | _____                                        |
| 9) Vitamin D is produced when skin is exposed to ____. | 10) Iron is found in ____ leafy vegetables.        | 11) Calcium is important for ____.                     | 12) A balanced diet has all ____ nutrients.  |
| _____                                                  | _____                                              | _____                                                  | _____                                        |
| 13) Junk food has excess ____ and ____.                | 14) Dehydration means lack of ____.                | 15) Fiber helps in ____.                               | 16) Anaemia is caused by deficiency of ____. |
| _____                                                  | _____                                              | _____                                                  | _____                                        |
| 17) Rickets is caused by deficiency of ____.           | 18) Scurvy is caused by deficiency of ____.        | 19) Night blindness is caused by deficiency of ____.   | 20) Goitre is caused by deficiency of ____.  |
| _____                                                  | _____                                              | _____                                                  | _____                                        |

Name: _____

Date: _____

ANSWER KEY

Food and Nutrition -- Solutions

Grade 3 | EVS | Sheet 1

|                                                                            |                                                                                    |                                                                                          |                                                                  |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Foods that give us energy are called _____.carbohydrates     | 2) Foods that help build our body are called _____.proteins             | 3) Foods that protect us from diseases are called _____.vitamins and minerals | 4) Milk, eggs, fish are rich in _____.protein         |
| 5) Rice and bread are rich in _____.carbohydrates               | 6) Fruits and vegetables are rich in _____.vitamins and minerals        | 7) Ghee and oil are rich in _____.fats                                        | 8) Vitamin C is found in _____.citrus fruits/aml      |
| 9) Vitamin D is produced when skin is exposed to _____.sunlight | 10) Spinach is found in _____. leafy vegetables are rich in _____.green | 11) Calcium is important for _____.bones                                      | 12) A balanced diet has all _____ nutrients.essential |
| 13) Junk food has excess _____ and _____.sugar/fat              | 14) Dehydration means lack of _____.water                               | 15) Fiber helps in _____.digestion                                            | 16) Anaemia is caused by deficiency of _____.iron     |
| 17) Rickets is caused by deficiency of _____.D                  | 18) Scurvy is caused by deficiency of _____.C                           | 19) Night blindness is caused by deficiency of _____.A                        | 20) Goitre is caused by deficiency of _____.iodine    |