

Name: _____

Date: _____

NUTRITION IN PLANTS

Solve the following problems. Write your answer on the line.

Score: _____ / 20

Grade 7 | Science | Sheet 1

1) Plants make food through _____	2) Chlorophyll is found in ____.	3) The green pigment in plants is _____	4) Plants need _____, water, and CO2 for _____
5) Oxygen is released during _____	6) The part of plant that absorbs _____	7) _____ of water in plants occurs through _____	8) _____ of water in plants occurs through _____
9) A plant that lives for one season is _____	10) A plant that lives for two years is _____	11) A plant that lives for many years is _____	12) The root system of grass is _____.
13) The root system of a carrot is _____	14) Stomata are openings found _____	15) Transpiration is loss of water _____	16) _____ is transfer of _____ to pistil
17) Seed dispersal by wind uses _____	18) The _____ part of a flower is _____	19) The female part of a flower is _____	20) Germination requires water, air, and _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

ANSWER KEY

Nutrition in Plants -- Solutions

Grade 7 | Science | Sheet 1

1) Plants make food through ____.	2) Chlorophyll is found in ____.	3) The green pigment in plants is ____.	4) Plants need ____, water, and CO2 for p
photosynthesis	leaves	chlorophyll	sunlight
5) Oxygen is released during ____.	6) The part of plant that absorbs water is ____.	7) Transport of water in plants occurs through ____.	8) Food transport in plants occurs through ____.
photosynthesis	roots	xylem	phloem
9) A plant that lives for one season is ____.	10) A plant that lives for two years is ____.	11) A plant that lives for many years is ____.	12) The root system of grass is ____.
annual	biennial	perennial	fibrous
13) The root system of a carrot is ____.	14) Stomata are openings found in ____.	15) Transpiration is loss of water through ____.	16) Pollination is transfer of ____ to pistil.
tap root	leaves	stomata	pollen
17) Seed dispersal by wind uses ____.	18) The male part of a flower is ____.	19) The female part of a flower is ____.	20) Germination requires water, air, and ____.
seeds	stamen	pistil	warmth