

Name: _____

Date: _____

REPRODUCTION IN ANIMALS

Solve the following problems. Write your answer on the line.

Score: _____ / 20

Grade 8 | Science | Sheet 2

|                                         |                                             |                                              |                                                |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Nocturnal animals are active _____.  | 2) Diurnal animals are active during _____. | 3) Dolphins are _____ mammals.               | 4) Bats are the only flying _____.             |
| _____                                   | _____                                       | _____                                        | _____                                          |
| 5) Snakes are _____.                    | 6) An exoskeleton is found in _____.        | 7) The study of animals is called _____.     | 8) Animals that hibernate sleep through _____. |
| _____                                   | _____                                       | _____                                        | _____                                          |
| 9) Producers in a food chain are _____. | 10) Consumers in a food chain are _____.    | 11) Decomposers in a food chain are _____.   | 12) An ecosystem includes living and _____.    |
| _____                                   | _____                                       | _____                                        | _____                                          |
| 13) Food chains begin with a _____.     | 14) Top of food chain is the _____.         | 15) Endangered species are at risk of _____. | 16) Asexual reproduction requires _____.       |
| _____                                   | _____                                       | _____                                        | _____                                          |
| 17) Sexual reproduction requires _____. | 18) A placenta is a male _____.             | 19) Silk is produced by _____.               | 20) Honey is produced by _____.                |
| _____                                   | _____                                       | _____                                        | _____                                          |

Name: _____

Date: _____

ANSWER KEY

Reproduction in Animals -- Solutions

Grade 8 | Science | Sheet 2

|                                                      |                                                           |                                                             |                                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Nocturnal animals are active at night .    | 2) Diurnal animals are active during the day .     | 3) Dolphins are aquatic mammals.                     | 4) Bats are the only flying mammals .                       |
| 5) Snakes are reptiles .                      | 6) An exoskeleton is found in insects/arthropods . | 7) The study of animals is called zoology .          | 8) Animals that hibernate sleep through winter .            |
| 9) Producers in a food chain are plants .     | 10) Consumers in a food chain are animals .        | 11) Decomposers in a food chain are bacteria/fungi . | 12) An ecosystem includes living and non-living components. |
| 13) Food chains begin with a producer .       | 14) Top of food chain is the apex predator.        | 15) Endangered species are at risk of extinction .   | 16) Asexual reproduction requires one parent.               |
| 17) Sexual reproduction requires two parents. | 18) Drone is a male bee .                          | 19) Silk is produced by silkworms .                  | 20) Honey is produced by bees .                             |