

Name: _____ Class/Sec: _____ Roll No: _____ Date: _____

PLANTS

Solve the following problems. Write your answer on the line.

Score: _____ / 20 Sheet 4 of 4

|                                                                             |                                                                               |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Ovule becomes the ____._____                                         | 2) Oxygen is released during ____._____                                   |
| 3) Photosynthesis stores energy in form of ____._____                   | 4) The study of plants is called ____._____                               |
| 5) Mosses are examples of ____ plants._____                             | 6) Ovary of a flower becomes the ____._____                               |
| 7) Chlorophyll is found in ____._____                                   | 8) Evergreen plants keep their leaves ____._____                          |
| 9) Transport of water in plants occurs through ____._____               | 10) Plants need ____, water, and CO <sub>2</sub> for photosynthesis._____ |
| 11) Ferns reproduce through ____._____                                  | 12) Plants make food through ____._____                                   |
| 13) Turgor pressure in cells keeps plants ____._____                    | 14) The outer covering of a seed is called ____._____                     |
| 15) Bees help in ____ pollination._____                                 | 16) Seed dispersal by wind uses light, winged ____._____                  |
| 17) Respiration in plants uses ____ and releases CO <sub>2</sub> ._____ | 18) Cactus is a ____ plant._____                                          |
| 19) Transpiration is loss of water through ____._____                   | 20) Parasitic plants get food from ____._____                             |