

Name: _____ Class/Sec: _____ Roll No: _____ Date: _____

NUTRITION IN PLANTS

Solve the following problems. Write your answer on the line.

Score: _____ / 20 Sheet 2 of 4

|                                                                               |                                                                             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Plants make food through ____._____                                    | 2) Chlorophyll is found in ____._____                                   |
| 3) A plant that lives for many years is ____._____                        | 4) Bees help in ____ pollination._____                                  |
| 5) The green pigment in plants is ____._____                              | 6) Mushroom is not a plant — it is a ____._____                         |
| 7) The root system of grass is ____._____                                 | 8) Evergreen plants keep their leaves ____._____                        |
| 9) Deciduous plants shed their ____ in autumn._____                       | 10) The male part of a flower is ____._____                             |
| 11) Plants need ____, water, and CO <sub>2</sub> for photosynthesis._____ | 12) Respiration in plants uses ____ and releases CO <sub>2</sub> ._____ |
| 13) Photosynthesis stores energy in form of ____._____                    | 14) Roots absorb ____ and minerals from soil._____                      |
| 15) Food transport in plants occurs through ____._____                    | 16) Parasitic plants get food from ____._____                           |
| 17) A plant that lives for two years is ____._____                        | 18) Cactus is a ____ plant._____                                        |
| 19) Turgor pressure in cells keeps plants ____._____                      | 20) Transpiration is loss of water through ____._____                   |