

Name: _____ Class/Sec: _____ Roll No: _____ Date: _____

NUTRITION IN PLANTS

Solve the following problems. Write your answer on the line.

Score: _____ / 20 Sheet 4 of 4

1) Leaves are the main site of ____. _____	2) Ferns reproduce through ____. _____
3) Plants that grow in water are ____. _____	4) Mushroom is not a plant — it is a ____. _____
5) Stomata are openings found in ____. _____	6) Mosses are examples of ____ plants. _____
7) The green pigment in plants is ____. _____	8) Bees help in ____ pollination. _____
9) Cactus is a ____ plant. _____	10) Pollination is transfer of ____ to pistil. _____
11) Evergreen plants keep their leaves ____. _____	12) Seed dispersal by wind uses light, winged ____. _____
13) Food transport in plants occurs through ____. _____	14) Venus flytrap is an example of ____ plant. _____
15) Oxygen is released during ____. _____	16) The part of plant that absorbs water is ____. _____
17) Turgor pressure in cells keeps plants ____. _____	18) A plant that lives for one season is ____. _____
19) The female part of a flower is ____. _____	20) Deciduous plants shed their ____ in autumn. _____